

Sleeping on the street in Barcelona

Everyone needs....

Food

Health

Feel protected

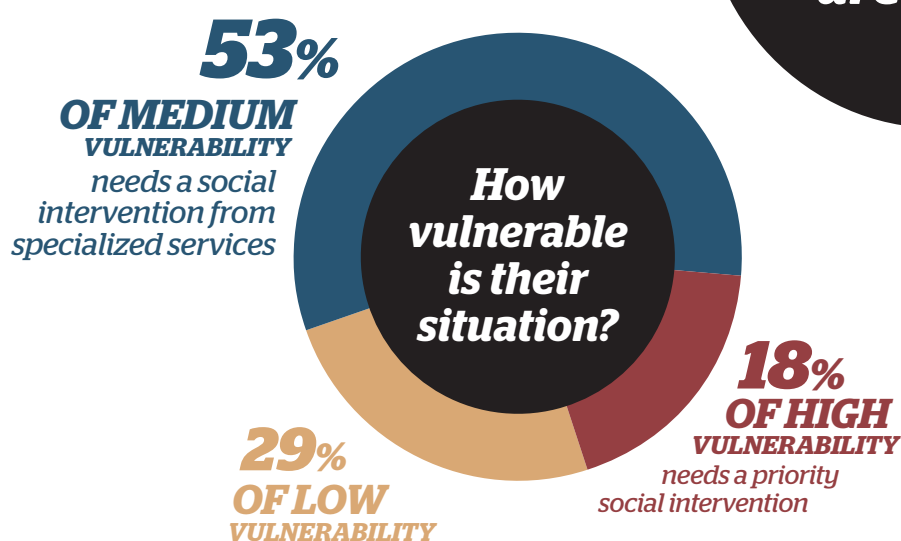

Everyone has the right to...

Be registered
Consult a doctor
Have a home
Have Social Services' support

Who are they and how vulnerable are they?

In Barcelona
956 people
sleep on the street.
315 has answered our survey.

82%
male

10%
female

8%
consider themselves as other

45 years old
on age average

Where are they from?

26% Spain
40.3% countries of the European Union
27% countries outside the European Union

Main countries of origin

26% Spain
19% Romania
8.8% Morocco
4.4% Italy

51 different countries of origin

What is their situation?

3 years and 4 months
living on the street

59.8% sleeping on the street at least a year

37.4%
registered in Barcelona

66%
receive no aid

14%
cannot afford basic needs

32%
has experienced a family breakdown

The percentage of people who receive any kind of benefit or regular incomes has not increased since 2017.

One in every three is involved in activities that make them feel good and happy.

Do they receive social assistance?

46%

have not been treated by a social worker or someone similar

11.7%

have used social emergency services

Can they go to the doctor?

41% with physical health problems

19% with chronic illnesses

44% have a medical card

29.5% have received medical emergency attention

17.7% have been admitted to the hospital

15.5% have needed an ambulance

In the last two years, the percentage of people who have a medical card has dropped from 50% to 44%. Moreover, a person of every five cannot reach out for help.

Do they feel protected?

30.5%
have been victims of physical or verbal attack

25%
of women report that they have suffered assaults

19.5%
have legal proceedings pending

15.8%
have been arrested in a police station

5.7%
have been forced, deceived or pressured

Living on the street exposes people to violent situations that can endanger their safety; even force them to do things against their will.